WELCOME TO THE GENESIS

We are pleased to present the GENESIS edition of THE BITCOIN ZINE, a lighthearted and playful publication on the spirit of Bitcoin!

Over the last few months we have been busy creating + thinking about the kind of Bitcoin content we would want to read. Earlier this year, Amiti started publishing educational Bitcoin material, specifically for highly technical topics.
Her work is both visually appealing and easy to digest.
Around the same time, Stacie began to experiment with lettering some of her favorite quotes and creating art that had long been in her head, but never executed on.
Desiree, having recently contributed a brilliant Bear's Butthead drawing to a local zine, saw the potential for something unique and proposed the idea of coming together to start a Bitcoin zine.

We often see references to the culture surrounding Bitcoin, but what does that all mean? What would it look like to get a bird's eye view of the intangible ramblings stream across crypto Twitter, mailing lists, and chat rooms?
THE BITCOIN ZINE IS AN ATTEMPT TO VISUALLY MEMORIALIZE THE MANY STORIES OF BITCOIN AS WE SEE IT. For centuries, zines, or similar literary mediums have served as an expressive outlet for subculture uprisings.
The Bitcoin zine intends to continue that tradition for the movement around the open source, censorship resistant, self sovereign, financial revolution.

This is where you come in! The people drive the culture, and the Bitcoin Zine intends to capture that culture through you. We want to hear your insights, be dazzled by your drawings, revel in your rebellion, laugh at your jokes... you get the idea. We are accepting submissions of original content. Anything goes!* We're open to any medium, as long as it can be scanned into a digital format. Send your haikus, comics, stories, art, puzzles, etc. to: THEBITCOINZINE@GMAIL.COM by AUGUST, 31 2020.

ORANGE COIN GOOD,
AMITI, DESIREE, + STACIE

*well, almost anything. We will not accept content that is offensive, hateful, or otherwise inappropriate.

P.S. We are raising a small amount of funds to cover server costs for a website. Donations are welcome + appreciated!
